Was it encrypted?	Not known
Who was told, and when?	R. Holt, in person at 15:30 on 21 September 2026.

A missing laptop, phone or drive that holds personal data may be a personal data breach. If it is likely to put people at risk it must be reported to the ICO within 72 hours of becoming aware of it.

4. Summary and sign-off

Summary	41 assets on site checked against the register. The six listed here are those with something to note and a sample of those that matched. Two network items were not on the register and have now been tagged. One laptop from a leaver could not be found.
Actions for the customer	Missing laptop HL-0119: R. Holt told on the day of the audit. Check whether it was encrypted and decide today whether it is a personal data breach that must be reported to the ICO. Replace desktop HL-0102, which no longer gets security updates. Update the register for the docking station move and the two new network items.
